

INDIAN<sup>20</sup> GAMING<sup>10</sup> San Diego

Answers to the most frequently asked questions about the show

Q: What is New at Indian Gaming '10?

A: *Attendee Registration rates are once again at '08 pricing!

*Platinum Plus – NEW registration level – cost saving bundled package!!

*Discount Pricing - $50 per person for groups of 5 or more!

*NEW in Networking and Trainings

**Level 1 Commissioner Certification – 2nd time held in conjunction with Trade Show! Save money - attend two great events at one location!

An abundance of information!

**Basic and Advanced Sessions - for a customized training experience

**Success Stories Track – What is working at tribal properties!!

*Great host hotels

Q: Does the Chairman's Leadership Award Luncheon require a ticket?

A: Yes. The Platinum- and Platinum Plus-level registration includes the Chairman's Leadership Award Luncheon. If you have a Gold- or Silver-level registration, a ticket will need to be purchased. Tickets are available for purchase at the registration area.

Q: Does the Wendell Chino Humanitarian Awards Banquet require a ticket?

A: Yes. The Platinum Plus-level registration includes a ticket to the Wendell Chino Humanitarian Awards Banquet. Tables and tickets can be purchased prior to the event at the registration area.

Q: When and where is the Chairman's Welcome Reception?

A: The Chairman's Welcome Reception is the opening event, Tuesday, April 6th, of Indian Gaming '10 and it is being held on the terrace at the Hard Rock San Diego.

Q: When and where is the Cultural Reception?

A: The Cultural Reception has been incorporated into a new event, the closing Reception. The Closing Reception is on Friday, April 9th, 3-6pm at the San Diego Convention Center.

Q: What does my badge/registration get me into?

A: The Platinum- and Platinum Plus-level registration will gain you access to the trade show floor, membership meeting, workshops and Chairman's Leadership Luncheon (Platinum Plus-level also includes a ticket to the Wendell Chino Humanitarian Awards Banquet). The Gold-level registration will gain you access to the trade show floor and workshops. The Silver-level registration will gain you access to the trade show floor only. The Commissioner's Certification Level 1 training will gain you access only that training. The Commissioner's Certification Plus will gain you access to that training and access to workshops and trade show floor on Thursday.

Q: Do I need to register for training?

A: Only 1 training session requires pre-registration:

1. The Commissioner Certification Level 1 on Wednesday, 4/7 and Thursday 4/8. To attend this 2-day session, you must pre-register on the Indian Gaming '10 Registration Form. You must attend all day of both days to receive certification, so please don't plan to attend any other convention training on 4/7 or 4/8.

All other sessions are open and do not require pre-registration or additional fees.

Q: What is the Commissioner's Certification Level 1?

A: This is the first part of NIGA's 3-part training certification series on gaming regulation. In its 10th year, this certification series is recognized as a standard in Indian Gaming. To receive your Certification for Level 1, you must attend all of the training (all day on 4/7 and 4/8). For details on the curriculum, go to <http://www.indiangaming.org/events/seminar/commissioners.shtml>.

Q: What is the difference in Commissioner's Certification Level 1 and Commissioner's Certification Plus?

A: When you register for the Commissioner's Certification Level 1, you are just registering to attend that training alone, with no other Indian Gaming '09 events. When you register for the Commissioner's Certification Plus, you gain access to the 2 days of Commissioner Certification training and the Trade Show floor and any other Friday workshops.

Q: What does an exhibitor registration include?

A: Two Gold-level registrations per booth. Two additional registrations can be purchased for $50 each. Gold-level registrations come with access to the trade show and workshops. However, the Gold-level does not come with access to the Chairman's Leadership Awards Luncheon or the Wendell Chino Humanitarian Awards Banquet. The tickets can be purchased separately at the registration area.